

Cooperative Communications, Inc.

Cooperative Communications QuikVoice Local Services are customized to meet the demanding needs of businesses which depend on the telephone to communicate to their clients. QuikVoice Local Services are provided over an advanced network that offers premier quality, reliability and competitive rates. Cooperative's QuikVoice product line offers business customers a choice for all their communication needs from a company that focuses on value, solutions and customer care.

OUR PRODUCT

The following QuikVoice Local Services provide seamless access to local, regional toll, and long distance. All products utilize advanced networking to complete and manage a customer's usage whether it is a call around the corner or around the world.

QuikLine Business Basic Is available for customers who need an analog interface or require a connection to a key system, single line telephone, fax machine or modem.

QuikLine Enhanced Business Is for customers who don't want to invest in a phone system but need all the features and functionality that a premise based system (PBX) can offer. QuikLine Enhanced Business is comparable to Verizon's Centrex service but has more features at a fraction of the cost.

QuikExpress Is a full T-1 with 24 channels that support DID and DOD trunk applications. QuikExpress uses Cooperative's highly advanced switching platform to direct all incoming calls to a person's extension. In addition, because of Cooperative's advanced platform, customers are assured that all calls are being delivered economically and securely.
